C Tech Premium Training Classes Registration Form

By registering for one or more of the video classes below, you acknowledge and agree to the following terms & conditions:

- Registrants acknowledge that all materials are Copyrighted by C Tech Development Corporation® 2020
- You agree not to record or copy any class videos.
- Each recorded class video rental is for one individual for two weeks from the date of payment.
- When registering for multiple classes at one time, you receive two weeks per class for all classes.
- Multiple persons may not view videos without each being separately paid and registered.
- No refunds will be made if the registrant does not complete the video (class).
- Once URLs and Passwords are delivered, registration may not be transferred nor used by any other individual.
- Most classes include additional materials, data and/or applications which are provided by download.
- Class registrants may submit questions related to the classes to support@ctech.com
- Registration can only be secured by payment. We will issue an invoice once you submit this form.
- Enterprise License customers receive unlimited access to these materials. No registration form required.
- Fixed and Floating license customers can purchase an unlimited access maintenance option, which may be less expensive than buying individual classes.
- Class outlines are at <http://www.ctech.com/training/online-classes/>
